POINTS

A seductive style, where creamy, mocha-scented oak adds cedar and vanilla hints to the pure, supple core of cherry and berry flavors.

POINTS

Crushed rose petal, orange peel, mint, cranberry and autumn leaves lift from the glass in the 2014 Pinot Noir Sangiacomo Vineyard. Sweet, perfumed and very medium in body, the 2014 Sangiacomo is another wine that speaks to finesse. What a pretty wine this is.
— Antonio Galloni, February 2016
